

Angela “Angel” Kling

- Originally drawn to the ball park to watch husband Terry play, Angel went on to become a regular fixture of the league as a supporter, sponsor and scorekeeper---she seldom missed a game
- For years Angel sponsored the “Angel’s Team” which won numerous league and tournament championships—the team, nicknamed, “The Purple Reign”, wore purple shirts at Angel’s request
- She became almost like a league “Mother” who looked after not only her own players but also other players in the league
- Angel did not know a stranger and was a friend to all, sometimes helping with first aid at games
- Angel was instrumental in saving a player’s life by recognizing his heart attack and forcing him to seek help on the field. Doug is playing ball to this day and thanks Angel more than she can imagine.
- Angel made and purchased many gifts over the years for players, managers and league officials

